

ProMAX Systems Price Protection Guarantee Helps Video Professionals Shop With Confidence

ProMAX Systems, a professional video editing systems integrator and service provider has introduced Price Protection to guarantee the lowest price on their core video editing system products.

“This is just one of the many steps we are taking to help our customers shop with confidence at ProMAX Systems”, stated Jess Hartmann, CEO of ProMAX Systems, “With this guarantee our customers can feel confident when purchasing from us knowing that they will get the best service in the industry at the best price.”

“Many people think that getting great service means, paying more. That’s not how we think.”, stated Marcelo Lewin, Director of Marketing & Interactive Media for ProMAX Systems, “We believe in providing great service, amazing technical expertise and low prices to give our professional video editing shoppers the best shopping experience in the industry.”

The ProMAX Systems Price Protection Guarantee gives customers 14 calendar days from the date of purchase to find a lower advertised price from our list of core video products and if found, we will refund the difference.

To see a complete list of the Price Protected products or to find out more details and restrictions on the ProMAX Price Protection, please check out ProMAX.com.

About ProMAX

Since 1994, ProMAX Systems has been providing professional video editing systems and storage solutions to the professional video industry. Find out more about ProMAX Systems at <http://www.ProMAX.com/>